DRIVERS STRIKE UNSETTLED. Commission Men Refused to Grant

Demands of Men.

The commission drivers' strike on North Third street has not yet been settled. Several meetings have been held during the last few days without result. The commission men will not grant the demands which the strikers have asked, and if the strike is settled it will be by arbitration.

Carloads of strawberries and other perishable fruits are standing on the tracks with nobody to haul them. All vegetables and fruits shipped from the South and which were formerly unloaded on the other side of the river are being brought to this side.

The strikers have been year quiet so far

The strikers have been very quiet so far and deny that they have been overturning wagons and pulling drivers from their seats. Extra policemen are still stationed in this district.

AMBASSADOR STORER HAS FOUND RESIDENCE AT LAST.

HERALD AND THE ST. LOUIS REPUBLIC. Vienna, May 16 .- (Copyright, 1908.)-The troublesome search for a house in which the United States Ambassador and Mrs. Storer have been engaged ever since they arrived has come to an end, the final result being that things will remain as they were in Mr. McCormick's time. Mr. and Mrs. Storer have been living in a hotel, but hope soon to receive their friends in their own handsome house in the Sales-ianergasse, occupied by Mr. Storer's predecessor.

THIS LITTLE GIRL'S TALENT DESTINES HER FOR THE STAGE.

At the children's festivities in celebration At the children's festivities in celebration of Father Harty's silver jubilee at the Odeon recently special attention was attracted to little Miss Katherine Burns, a dainty, charming child, 8 years old, who is destined to become a professional actress within a decade, or as soon as she has finished her grammar-school term in St. Leo's Parish.

She is the daughter of John Burns of No. 2304 Madison street, a prominent member of the Theatrical Brotherhood, who has been stage manager of several of the local theaters.

Since babyhood little Katherine has demonstrated a love and talent for the procession in which her father is engaged, and from the parochial school he proposes to send her to teachers of dramatic art.

The child has appeared in many entertainments in St. Leo's Parish, and now-adays is counted upon for important parts. She especially distinguished herself at the Odeon by making a pretty speech and presenting to Father Harty a handsome bouquet of twenty-five American beauty roses, a rose for each year of the jublie. In the pantomime which followed she helped to illustrate the story of "Bobby Shafto." Since babyhood little Katherine has dem-

TEXAS COMING TO FRONT WITH $200,000 FOR EXHIBIT.

Citizens Contribute Liberally to Fund for State Representation at the World's Fair.

Rapid progress is being made by the citzens of Texas in raising $200,000, with which it is intended to provide a suitable exhibit for the Lone Star State at the World's Fair next year. The Legislature having made no appropriation, citizens have undertaken to raise an appropriate sum by private contri-

In the furtherance of this plan the San Antonio Express has published the names to the fund from the Alamo City, and the list shows the spirit of enterprise with which the Texans are entering into the project of having their State properly represented at the Louisiana Purchase Expo-

Other cities and many of the smaller towns are following San Antonio's lead in this matter, and everywhere the papers are encouraging liberal support of the World's Fair Commission, which presented the contribution idea to the citizens for their approval. It is believed that when the first returns are made it will be found that the required amount is fully subscribed.

The San Antonio Express is anxious that the two national political conventions be held in St. Louis next year. An editorial in a recent issue says, in part:

The utmost possible success of the World's Fair is supposed to be the wish of every patriotic American, and it should also be the general destrethant everybody should enjoy the instructive exhibit which will be afforded by a visit to the Bappetition. One purpose of all such exhibits is to educate the people to stimulate and encourage enterties an about the progress, and the more people that can be brought within the scope of the enterprise in be brought within the scope of the enterprise in be brought within the scope of the enterprise in better it will be for the Economic and the second of the progress of the Fair to the Fair City during the progress of the Fair.

The Exposition celebrates a great collinary event—the annegation of a vast territory to the United States—and the fair would obtain some benefit from the large gatherings that would be called to its immediate when the surface of the progress of the fair and the Fair would obtain some benefit from the large gatherings that would be called to its immediate than St. Louis. Nowhere else could the conventions be better taken care of, and it would be difficult to find a more central or more accessible location.
